

Andrea Graham and Scott Kruger

The Adventurous Life and Legacy of Verlen Kruger

Verlen Kruger's life story and paddling accomplishments inspire others to take hold of their dreams and make them reality! Learn more about this canoeing legend with a photo presentation chronicling his life including a spotlight on The Ultimate Canoe Challenge, a canoe trip Verlen accomplished with Steve Landick. Check out Verlen's historic Ultimate Canoe Challenge canoe that was paddled and portaged more than 28,000+ miles at the Verlen Kruger Legacy booth in the exhibitor area.

Andrea Graham and Scott Kruger are grandchildren of Verlen Kruger. They are also co-founders of the newly formed organization, Verlen Kruger Legacy. "We are thrilled to announce our plans to create a traveling museum containing Verlen Kruger's most notable canoes and iconic memorabilia. In doing so we share with you the inspiring story of our grandfather's life." The mission of Verlen Kruger Legacy is to preserve the legacy, stories, and accomplishments of Verlen Kruger, canoeing's greatest of all time and to inspire future generations to appreciate nature, quiet water sports, and human potential.

