

Jerry Vandiver

Songs about paddling and all things outdoors!

Award-winning songwriter Jerry Vandiver has song credits on over 15 million records and paddling credits on countless rivers, streams, and lakes across North America. Jerry and his extraordinary fiddle player will be mixing in some new songs along with some old favorites from his paddle songs CDs. Be ready to tap your toes and enjoy this unique addition to your Quiet Adventures Symposium experience.

Award winning songwriter and avid paddler Jerry Vandiver has had his songs recorded by the likes of The Oak Ridge Boys, Barbara Mandrell, Phil Vassar, Lonestar and Tim McGraw to name a few. Thanks to these artists, Jerry's songs can be found on over 15 million records, two of which are hanging on the walls of the Country Music Hall of Fame. Jerry has combined his music and paddling passions to create a unique and fun presentation about our "quiet adventures" including selections like "Camp Coffee", "Too Many Boats" and "Kevlar Is Light". Be ready to smile, sing along and tap your toes!

If we are lucky, he will bring his new album with Caitlin Evanson Peaceful Waters
