Empowering communities to develop and grow youth mountain biking Programs

Learn more about the Michigan Scholastic Cycling Association (MiSCA) and the movement to get more kids mountain biking across the state. Mountain biking provides structured and unstructured "play" to allow youth to make choices, face consequences, and overcome adversity.

Sean Warren is the Executive Director for the Michigan Scholastic Cycling Association. Sean is passionate about getting more kids on bikes and, over the past decade, has worked with MiSCA in many roles, directly contributing to all aspects of the organization. Sean holds a Master of Business Administration (MBA) from the University of Michigan-Dearborn, completing his undergraduate degree in Marketing Management from Davenport University.
